3. CIRCULAR NO.02/2018-Comm, Dated 29.05.2018.

APSRTC has entered into logistics business from June 2016. Total parcel and courier business has been taken over from M/s ANL Parcel Service w.e.f. 27.08.17.

The new perishable tariff is communicated to all Officers in the Corporation vide ref. 3rd cited. After the implementation of the revised perishable tariff, performance was reviewed. During the discussion with all ATMs(C) and Dy CTMs(M&C), it was informed that the farmers are expressing displeasure. It is represented by all the officers to remove the unloading charges in the perishable goods tariff as the farmers are requested that they will unloading items by own. By taking into consideration of all the requests and suggestions the perishable tariff is revised.

The approved perishable tariff by changing the slabs to 0-25, 26-50 & 51-80 and removing the unloading charges to the present tariff for perishable goods is as follows:

Kms	0-25	26-50	51-80
0-100	40	50	60
101-200	50	60	70
201-300	60	70	80
301-400	70	80	90
401-500	80	90	100

The revised tariff without un-loading charges will come into force w.e.f. 12.06.18. This circular super seeds all the earlier instructions communicated vide circular at reference 3rd cited.
