CIRCULAR NO. PD-07/2015, dt. 26.2.2015.

Sub:-RECRUITMENT- Promotion of Mechanic/Artisan/ Store Attendants to the post of Junior Assistant (Material) - Conducting of eligibility test - Validity of test - Instructions issued- Reg.
Ref: Circular No. PD-35/1995, dt. 24.5.1995.

Instructions were issued vide circular at reference cited to all the recruiting authorities with regard to promotion of Routine Clerks, Conductors etc., to the post of Junior Clerk. In the said circular, instructions were issued regarding the validity of the eligibility test. It was informed that as the examination is a qualifying examination, it is enough if the candidates pass the examination once and need not pass the examination subsequently for promotion of Routine Clerks/ Telephone Operators/ Conductors as Junior Clerks.

One of the units have sought clarification with regard to validity period for the eligibility test conducted to Mechanics/ Artisans/Store Attendants for promotion to the post of Jr.Assistant (Material).

The matter has been examined.

The post of Jr. Assistant(Material) is being filled up by promotion from the categories of Mechanics/Artisans/Store Attendants. There are no circular instructions in respect of validity period for the eligibility tests conducted for Mechanics/ Artisans/Store Attendants for promotion to the post of Jr.Assistant (Material).

It is decided to adopt the similar analogy as that of instructions contained in circular no. 35/1995, with regard to the validity period for the eligibility tests conducted for Mechanics/ Artisans/Store Attendants for promotion to the post of Jr.Assistant (Material).

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that as the examination is a qualifying examination; it is enough if the Mechanics/Artisans/Stores Attendants pass the examination for promotion to the post of Junior Assistant(Material) once in service and need not pass the examination subsequently.

All the recruiting authorities are requested to take necessary action accordingly.
