CIRCULAR No. 4/93-HRD, DATED: 8TH JANUARY, 1993.
Sub: - RECRUITMENT REGULATIONS - Recruitment Regulation
for the post of Junior Assistant (P) - Allotment of Marks for promotion - Reg.
Ref: - Circular No. PD-103/85, dated 17.8.1985.
---:3:---

Instructions have been issued vide Circular No. PD-103/85, dated 17.8.1985 notifying that the candidates who appear for the direct recruitment post of Jr. Assistant (P) should necessarily get a minimum of 30 Marks in Telugu and 10 Marks in English out of maximum Marks of 75 and 25 respectively. The Minimum marks allowed to SC/ST/BC/PHC candidates are 22 in Telugu and 8 in English.

2. Subsequently, a promotional channel has been created to the departmental candidates from the ranks of Routine Clerk/Telephone Operator/Punch Operator/Comptist and Conductors for the post of Junior Assistant (Personnel) with a condition that they have to pass the examination being held in this connection. While the passing of test is made compulsory for the promotees, no specific mention has been made that the promotees have to secure 30 marks in Telugu and 10 marks in English, as a result of which the recruiting authorities have been adopting different methods depending upon the availability of candidates and number of vacancies.

3. In order to have a uniform procedure in regard to departmental candidates for promotion to the post of Jr. Assistant (P), it is now decided to prescribe only 40% as pass mark on the aggregate without insisting on the minimum prescribed marks in English and Telugu since these candidates stand on a different footing when compared with the candidates for direct recruitment more particularly with regard to educational qualifications. However, in regard to special minimum marks in English and Telugu prescribed for candidates for direct recruitment as mentioned in Circular cited, there will not be any change.
